Woman's Club To Sponsor Art Classes

The Appomattox Woman's Club is again sponsoring art classes this year for both children and adults, according to Mrs. Lloyd Hudson, fine arts chairman for the club.

Starting date is Tuesday, September 16th, and the instructor will be Mr. Hugh Gaunt, of Bedford, who was also instructor here for the past two years. The Woman's Club is very fortunate to have Mr. Gaunt return again this year as he is an excellent instructor for both beginners and the more advanced students.

Jack Williams, Captain of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad, has agreed to let the Woman's Club use the squad building again this year for the classes.

Classes for children, ages nine through fourteen, will meet each Tuesday between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. for a series of 15 lessons.

Two classes are offered for adults, one beginning at 10 a.m. through 12 p.m. each Tuesday and the other between 1 and 3 p.m. The adult classes are for a series of 15 lessons, also.

Those interested, whether beginners or experienced painters, are asked to contact Mrs. Lloyd Hudson, phone 352-8467, or Mrs. W. M. Abbitt, phone 352-3511, for further information. Classes are filling up fast so if you are interested, please contact one of the above mentioned as soon as possible.
